

Appendix C

Type of Partner Questions

Program Development Partner

1. Are there clearly defined goals and outcomes for the partnership? Yes/No

2. Is the partner interested in working with the CIS to build capacity and/or infrastructure to deliver cancer education or information? Yes/No

3. Is the partner willing to formalize the partnership with CIS through (Select at least one box):
 - Letter of commitment
 - Memorandum of Understanding
 - Cost sharing
 - Office Space
 - Other: _____

4. Will the partner acknowledge CIS participation? Yes/No

5. What role will the partner play in evaluating whether the partnership and/or cooperative activities are meeting agreed upon outcomes? (Select at least one box)
 - Provide qualitative data (e.g., case study)
 - Provide quantitative data (e.g., survey results)
 - Administer audience surveys
 - Track dissemination activities
 - Other: _____

6. Is the partner interested in jointly developing educational programs with the CIS?
Yes/No

7. Is the partner willing to work with CIS to ensure programs are audience-appropriate and scientifically accurate? Yes/No

8. What are the available methods for information dissemination? (Click any of the boxes below and answer the questions directly below the checked box.)

Newsletter?

Is partner interested in and able to include outside information? Yes/No

Website?

Is partner interested in and able to include outside information? Yes/No

Is partner willing to link to outside organizations/agencies? Yes/No

Listserv?

Is partner interested in and able to include outside information? Yes/No

Regional Network or Coalition

Is partner able to disseminate outside information via network or coalition?

Yes/No

9. Is the partner willing to provide the CIS with access to information on their programs and activities? Yes/No

If yes, via what mechanism?

Newsletter

Regular mailings

Email updates